

ABSTRACT

This invention relates to the use of the IL-2 common gamma chain (γ_c) and related molecules for the modulation of signal activities controlled by NIK, and some new such molecules